

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW MEXICO

SARAH CHARLEY,

Plaintiff,

v.

CV 16-92 MCA/WPL

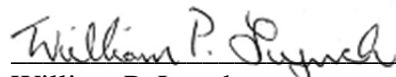

TATE'S AUTO CENTER OF GALLUP, INC.
a New Mexico domestic corporation,
CHRIS ORTIZ, CHRYSLER CAPITAL, LLC,
a foreign limited liability company d/b/a Chrysler Auto Capital L.L.C.,

Defendants.

ORDER

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 16(b)(2) requires me to enter a scheduling order within 90 days after any defendant has been served with the complaint or within 60 days after any defendant has appeared, unless I find good cause for delay. In this case, there is a pending dispositive motion that would, if granted, resolve all or substantially all of the case and would significantly narrow the scope of necessary discovery. (Doc. 13.) I held a Status Conference with the parties on August 17, 2016. Under the circumstances, and after discussion with the parties, I find that the pending dispositive motion constitutes good cause to delay entry of a scheduling order. I will enter an Initial Scheduling Order upon resolution of the dispositive motion. The parties may contact my chambers should circumstances change.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
